SOCIAL BIOLOGY

Volume 21, 1974

ABILITY: and blood group genes among Negroes (abs.), 219
Abortion: and maternal age, parity, and pregnancy compensation artifact, 195–203
Abrahamson, S.: abstract, 110–111
Age heaping: in recent U.S. censuses, 163–166
Altitude: and migration and fertility in the Andes, 12–27
American Eugenics Society: early history of, 115–120; and medical genetics, 120–122; and genetic counseling, 122–123; and Princeton Conferences, 123–125; contemporary role of 125–126
Andes: altitude, migration, and fertility in, 12–27
Anger: as phase in coping, 1–6
Anxiety: as phase in coping, 1–6
Anthropometry: used to compute tribal relationships in India (abs.), 218
Apgar, Virginia: review, 314–315
Assortative mating: and artificial selection (abs.), 219; in Oxford City (abs.), 317
Ayala, F. J.: abstract, 111

BAKER, R. J.: abstract, 219
Bennett, J. H.: review. 98–101
Bereavement: phases in coping with, 1–6
Biology and the Human Sciences: The Herbert Spencer Lectures, 1970, 311–312
Birth order: and family size among epileptics (abs.), 110
Blacks: in U.S. population, 1880–1970 (abs.), 111–112. See also Negroes.
Blake, Judith: abstract, 220–221
Blood: chimera in DZ twins (abs.), 317
Blood groups: and behavioral differences in DZ twins, 205–206; genes for and ability (abs.), 219; and behavioral trait linkage (abs.), 220; frequencies of among Irish Tinkers, 327–328
Body size: and menarche, 8–11
Boorman, S. A.: abstract, 400
Boyce, A. J.: review, 103–108
Brackenridge, C. J.: abstract, 218
Brain size: and human intelligence (abs.), 400
Brazil: demography of Shirishana in, 58–69; marital distances and inbreeding in, 249–255
Breastfeeding: and social background of U.S. mothers, 39–57
Bresler, Jack B.: review, 210–212
Brown, M. S.: abstract, 401
Burton, R. V.: abstract, 220

CARLETON, JOHN L.: review, 396
Castes: biochemical genetic markers in (abs.), 317
Cavalli-Sforza, L. L.: abstract, 220
Census: age heaping in, 163–166; of U.S. in 1970 evaluated, 221
Chakraborty, R.: abstract, 218
Childlessness: of U.S. women born 1891–1945, 178–193; and income, 296–308; negative binomial distribution of, 308–310
China: steroid contraceptives in (abs.), 221–222
Chromosomes: and hypohidrotic ectodermal dysplasia (abs.), 109–110; X-ray induced breakage of (abs.), 110; radiation-induced mutation of (abs.), 110; staining of in spermatazoa (abs.), 219; staining of nucleoli in (abs.), 219; and reciprocal translocations in newborns (abs.), 316; male sex abnormalities in (abs.), 399; mapping of (abs.), 399; and male infertility (abs.), 399
Ciba Foundation Symposium 17: review, 312–313
Cigarette smoking: effect of on sex ratios, 33–37
Coale, Ansley J.: abstract, 111–112
Collected Papers of R. A. Fisher, Volume I, 98–101
Colombia: ambivalence toward small families in, 127–143
Computers: and detection of abnormal genetic inheritance (abs.), 218
Contraception: and desired family size in U.S., 84–85; in the Philippines, 88–95; genetic effect of (abs.), 111; in Latin America, 128; in China (abs.), 221–222. See also Family planning.
Coping: phases in, 1–6
Cook, P. J. L.: abstract, 399
Cooperation: selective value of gene for (abs.), 400
Costa Rica: fertility change in (abs.), 112; ambivalence toward small families in, 127–143
Crawford, M. H.: review, 214–215
Cruz-Coke, R.: abstract, 111
Cytogenetics: and survey of newborns (abs.), 399

DEATH: phases in coping with, 1–6; social and demographic consequences of various causes of, 144–161
de Magalhaes, J.: abstract, 317
Demographic data: errors in collection of (abs.), 221
Denial: as phase in coping, 1–6
Denmark: Down's syndrome in (abs.), 220
Depression: as phase in coping, 1–6
Differential fertility: and normal selection for IQ, 168–176
Differential Mortality in the United States: A Study in Socioeconomic Epidemiology, 215–217
Divorce: recent upturn in (abs.), 113
Djerassi, Carl: abstract, 221–222
Down's syndrome: prevalence of in Denmark (abs.), 220
Duncan, William G.: abstract, 112

EAVES, L. J.: abstract, 400
Ecuador: unstable sexual unions and fertility in, 353–359
Education: and breastfeeding among U.S. mothers, 49; and fertility in the U.S., 80–81; and childlessness, 303–305; and child mortality in India, 385–388
England: heritability of fertility in peerage of, 225–231
Epileptics: birth order and family size among (abs.), 110
Eugenics: and history of American Eugenics Society, 115–126; and IQ, 174; early history of, 333–334
Eysenck, H. J.: abstract, 400

FAMILY EXPERIENCES: cohort variations in for females (abs.), 318–319
Family planning: in the Philippines, 88–95; and value orientations, 189–191
Family resemblance: linear model for analysis of (abs.), 318
Family size: ambivalence toward in Latin America, 127–142; and IQ, 168–169; and value orientations, 188–194; effect of sex predetermination on, 242–248; preferences in among college students, 279–289
Feldman, M. W.: abstract, 220
Fertility: of the Mormons, 70–76; excess and deficit of in U.S., 77–87; of U.S. blacks 1850–1969 (abs.), 111–112; world survey of (abs.), 112; in Costa Rica (abs.), 112; and value orientations, 185–194; indigenous regulation of, 207; work of economists in (abs.), 222; heritability of in British peerage, 225–231; and sex predetermination, 242–247; community data in surveys of (abs.), 319; of Irish Tinkers, 326–327; in unstable sexual unions in Ecuador, 353–359; of rural Haitian women, 368–378; related to child mortality in India, 385–388; and homicide rates in the U.S., 389–391
Freedman, Ronald: abstract, 319
Friedrich, U.: abstract, 315

GENETIC COUNSELING: role of American Eugenics Society in, 122–123; history of in U.S., 332–339
Genetic markers: in four Punjab groups (abs.), 317
Genetics: and estimation of individual's racial composition (abs.), 109; of skin, hair, and eye color (abs.), 109; of hypohidrotic ectodermal dyplasia (abs.), 109–110; and errors in refraction (abs.), 110; and effects of contraception (abs.), 111; and salivary and pancreatic amylase (abs.), 111; of Tridacna maxima (abs.), 111; and tribal relationships (abs.), 218; and computer detection of abnormal inheritance (abs.), 218; and linkage of marker loci and quantitative trait (abs.), 220; and fertility variance, 226; and hair graying, 293; and IQ tests (abs.), 317–318; of Irish Tinkers, 327–330; and development of social attitudes (abs.), 400; and selective value of cooperation (abs.), 400; and familial hypercholesterolemia (abs.), 401; and hyperactive child syndrome (abs.), 401; and schizophrenia (abs.), 400–401
Genetics and Society, 210–212
Geraedts, J.: abstract, 219
Glick, Paul C.: abstract, 113
Goldstein, J. L.: abstract, 401
Gomex B., Miguel: abstract, 112
Greenland: migration and genetic kinship in, 272–278
Grief: as phase in coping, 1–6
Guilt: as phase in coping, 1–6

HAIR GRAYING: and mortality, 290–295
Haiti: fertility of rural women in, 368–378
Hammerton, I. J. L.: abstract, 399
Harrison, G. A.: review, 103–108; abstract, 317
Hartley, Shirley Fester: review, 209–210
Hawaii: hybridity effect on mortality in, 232–234
HEALTH SCIENCES: training in data management in, 96–97
Heritability: of fertility in British peerage, 225–231; of intelligence, 317; and family resemblance (abs.), 318; estimated for human populations (abs.), 318
Holmberg, M.: abstract, 110
Homicide: and fertility rates in the U.S., 389–391
Human Biology Council, 96
Human Condition, The. How Did We Get Here and Where Are We Going?, 393–394
Humanistic Perspectives in Medical Ethics, 394–396
Hunter syndrome, 317
Huntington's disease: described, 1; sex of affected parent and age of onset in (abs.), 218
Hurler syndrome, 317
Hybridity: and genetic estimates of ancestry (abs.), 109; admixture in Icelanders (abs.), 218; effect of on mortality, 232–234
Hyperactive child syndrome: evidence for polygenicity in (abs.), 401
Hypercholesterolemia: genetic mechanism for (abs.), 401
Hypoxia: effects of on fertility, 14–27

ICELANDERS: admixture in (abs.), 218
Inbreeding: and marital distance in Brazil, 249–255; among Irish Tinkers, 325
Incest: folk theory of (abs.), 220
Income: and childlessness, 296–307
India: tribal relationships in (abs.), 218; biochemical genetic markers in (abs.), 317; child mortality, social status, and fertility in, 385–388
Infanticide: among the Shirishana, 64
Infertility: and male chromosomal anomalies (abs.), 399
Inheritance: of errors in refraction (abs.), 110; computer detection of abnormalities in (abs.), 218; cultural vs. biological (abs.), 220
Insemination: timing of and human sex ratios, 379–383
Intelligence: and human brain size (abs.), 400
Ireland: demography, ethnohistory, and genetics of Tinkers in, 321–331
Is My Baby All Right?, 314–315
Italy: hereditary myopathies in, 235–241
IQ: differential fertility and normal selection for, 168–176; genetic component in test performance for (abs.), 317–318

JACOBS, P. A.: abstract, 399
Johnston, Francis E.: review, 212–213
Jürgens, Hans W.: review, 396–397

KEELY, CHARLES B.: abstract, 319
Kinship: in Eastern Greenland, 272–278
Kinship coefficient: in isolated populations, 276–277
Kitagawa, Evelyn M.: review, 215–217
Klinefelter's syndrome: and infertility (abs.), 399
Koulischer, L.: abstract, 399

LACTATION: in Haiti, 376–377
Lalor Foundation: research fellowship program of, 207
Langaney, A.: abstract, 218
Lasker, Gabriel: review, 101–103
Latin America: ambivalence toward small families in, 127–143
Law and Ethics of A.I.D. and Embryo Transfer, 312–313

Loehlin, J. C.: abstract, 219

MACLEAN, C. J.: abstract, 109
Mahlendorf, Ursula: review, 396
Malzberg, B.: abstract, 110
Man for Man: A Multidisciplinary Workshop on Effecting Man's Social and Psychological Nature Through Community Action, 396
Marital distance: and inbreeding in Brazil, 249–255; in Oxford City (abs.), 317
Matsui, S.: abstract, 219
Medical genetics: role of American Eugenics Society in, 120–122
Menarche: age at and body size, 8–11
Menstrual cycle: timing of insemination in and sex ratio, 379–383
Mental retardation: and sex-linked recessive disease (abs.), 299–400
Merritt, A. D.: abstract, 111
Metachromasia, 317
Methods and Theories of Anthropological Genetics, 214–215
Mexico: ambivalence toward small families in, 127–143; mortality patterns in, 256–271; hair grayness and mortality in, 290–295
Microevolution of Human Populations, 212–213
Migration: and altitude and fertility in the Andes, 12–27; in Eastern Greenland, 272–274
Mormons: fertility of, 70–76
Morrison, J. R.: abstract, 401
Mortality: effect of tobacco smoking on, 33–37; among the Shirishana, 67–68; social and demographic consequences of various causes of, 144–161; effect of hybridity on, 232–234; in Cuanalan, Mexico, 256–271; and graying of hair, 290–295; among Haitian children, 375; among Irish Tinkers, 327
Mucopolysaccharidosis: detection of heterozygous carriers of (abs.), 317
Muller, A.: abstract, 317
Muscular dystrophies: in northeast Italy, 235–241
Mutations: and traits with incomplete penetrance and high fitness (abs.), 218
Myopathies: geographic distribution of in northeast Italy, 235–241

NATIONAL FERTILITY SURVEY: critique of (abs.), 113
Negroes: and blood group genes and ability (abs.), 219. See also Blacks.
